deed from the eleven Covell heirs to F. Russell Young and Mary D. Young, his wife, is void and not an instrument competent for transferring title to real estate, and request strict proof.

- 5. Are without personal knowledge of the facts and allegations contained in paragraph "5" of Plaintiff's Amended Bill for Partition and Sale of Real Property, but demand strict proof thereof.
- 6. Maintain that the coveyance from F. Russell Young and Mary D. Young, his wife, to Plaintiff, Linganore Corporation, constitutes an unlawful conveyance and deny that Plaintiff has an interest in the subject property equal to 92% of the fee ownership of said property.
- 7. Demand strict proof of allegations made in paragraph "7" of Complaint.

WHEREFORE, Defendants request:

- 1. That this Court dismiss Plaintiff's Amended Bill for Partition and Sale of Real Property, with costs to Plaintiff.
- 2. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem appropriate.

Herbert D. Morrison Attorney for Defendants

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that a copy of these Answers were mailed to James McSherry, Esquire at 100 W. Church Street, Frederick, Maryland, and to David E. Aldridge, Esquire 120 W. Church Street, Frederick, Maryland, 21701. on this 22 day of March, 1972.

Herbert D. Morrison

Filedapril 11, 1922